OUR UNIQUENESS

JUSUF INDRADEWA & PARTNERS

Was established in late 1990 as a pioneer in providing legal consultancy on matters relating to the capital market in Indonesia. At present we are expanding our professional services to current business and economic circumstances, especially in the energy sector, infrastructure contract, competition and international trade settlement. Accordingly, we associate with the seasoned experts in the following respective fields. We endeavor simultaneously in order to improve the quality of our services to our clients to complete their transactions, among others, covering:

- Initial Public Offering (IPO) of shares and the floating of bonds;
- Energy regulatory compliance,
- Public Private Partnership contract,
- International trade and WTO Law compliance,
- Issuance of convertible bonds, rights issue of preferred stock to current stockholders, accompanied by warrants for them to buy common stock;
- Mutual funds;
- Registration of Publicly Held Companies without listing their shares on the stock market;
- Secondary market transactions that among others involved margin trading;
- Corporate actions of publicly listed companies, whether due to conflict of interest or not, that might relate to purchase of assets, merger and acquisition, and Tender Offer;
- Strategic Sale;
- Sale of stock to employees and management (ESOP/EMBO).

We have also been providing legal services in setting up joint ventures, joint operations, reorganizations and restructurings, mergers and acquisitions, privatization of SOE's, and corporate matters.

In providing services, it has been our policy to develop and maintain cordial and professional working relationship with government entities at the ministerial level, such as, Ministry of Finance, Ministry of Justice, Foreign Investment Coordinating Board (BKPM), as well as the Indonesian Central Bank, Bank Indonesia and Financial Services Authority (OJK).

OUR PRACTICE AREAS

General Corporate

We have an extensive experience in legal procedures and parameters governing a wide variety of alternate methods of structuring foreign investment, joint-venture and set-up of the appropriate entities. Our legal research department is continually re-defining corporate approaches to industrial projects as Indonesia systematically de-regulates its domestic economy. As enhanced incentives are devised by the Government, we are able to guide existing operations into new areas of revenue-producing activities and offer new commercial projects advantageous of current and anticipated regulations. Increasingly, corporate tax strategies are becoming more creative and attractive.

Securities & Capital Market

Since 1990, we have been advising various corporate clients on the entire legal aspects, concerning Initial Public Offering (IPO), Right and Bond issues, and other securities offerings. Our services include performing the compulsory legal audit and issuing the legal opinions to be submitted to Financial Services Authority (OJK).

Our securities and capital market practices include:

- Domestic and international IPO's;
- Domestic and international bond issues;
- Floating rate notes (FRN); medium term notes (MTN); etc.
- Convertible/exchangeable bond issues;
- Asset Securitization, etc.

JUSUF INDRADEWA & PARTNERS

We also handle corporate restructuring including merger, acquisition, consolidation transactions as well as asset sales and purchases. We represent acquiring companies, target companies, in these transactions. Because of our involvement in corporate restructuring, we have understood the dynamics of the restructuring process from each constituent's point of view.

Corporate Restructuring

In which the firm has acquired intense practical experiences for ensuring regulatory compliances within the energy industry, both the upstream and downstream sectors. For example, certification and security compliance of energy supplier, transport, distribution undertakings and metering point operation. We also provide professional services concerning regulatory compliance of the renewable energy provision.

Public Private Partnership (PPP) Contract

PPP is one of our quite expert fields. PPP itself is a long-term contract between private party and Governmental entity for providing a public asset or services. In which the private party bears significant risks and management responsibilities. PPP typically do not include services contracts or a turn-key construction contract, which are categorized as the public procurement project or the privatization of utilities where there is a limited ongoing role for the public sector.

International Trade and WTO Law

The firm provides regulatory advises on the international trade and World Trade Organization (WTO) settlements, particularly the product dumping settlement. Accordingly, we accord advisory services concerning the diverse aspects of international trade and WTO law.

Banking & Finance

The firm advises on regulatory and transactional matters. We are able to assist in preparing documentation for all types of syndicated loan facilities, letter of credit facilities, money market transactions, and other related arrangements. Whenever government approvals, filings and reporting are required, we have extensive experience in advising, assisting, and ensuring that clients are in compliance with all such requirements. We also provide assistance in the incorporation of joint-venture banks, insurance companies, and other finance-related joint-venture.

Aviation Law

Past Directorship in the Indonesian Civil Aviation Authority of one of the Firm's Senior Partner provides invaluable links to the Aviation and Aerospace sector as this area becomes more competitive and Asia-oriented. We assist clients in aircraft finance, security documentation, compliance with applicable law and regulations and other relevant matters in this sector.

Intellectual Property Right
